HEIDI ÖST

I'm 22 and come from Åland. I'm ambitious at times but also very lazy at times. I've come to Lemböte to make friends, to have fun and to go to sauna. Peace to me personally, means to be in terms with one self, to love people for who they are but also to stand up for yourself. That is, respect others and yourself.

ANDREEA BOLOS

I am 19 and I'm originally from Romania but I live on Åland. I'm a little quirky, smile a lot and quite ambitious. I came here to enjoy the landscape of Lemböte lit up by the smiles of new faces. And to chill J . I think peace has many meanings but one of them is respecting yourself and others. Peace is security and freedom.

DAVID GARLAND

I'm a 21-year-old chap from Northern Ireland . I'm easy-going, not taking myself too seriously, quite naïve and bored. When I arrived here I was hoping for the crack to be 90... to me peace is the feeling of not being attacked by other people or countries.
